

8 July 2016
10.30 – 12.00

Reanimation Package
of Reforms
(Olhynska 6, Kyiv)

Anti-Corruption Policies in Public Finance.

We cordially invite you to a public debate on Anti-Corruption Policies in Public Finance. Together with four highly distinguished speakers we will take account of the work done in Ukraine in the area on fighting corruption in public finance and will be able to discuss the steps that need to be taken in order to make that process complete. We will analyse factors that have a direct impact on corruption as well as indirect causes of it. Finally we will focus on the importance of good governance and effective public finance as the two leading vehicles for establishing a country's economic and social priorities.

#UkraineReforms is a project which was launched in November 2014 by Wilfried Martens Centre for European Studies in partnership with the Kyiv School of Economics, Reanimation Package of Reforms and Stronger Together.

Programme

10:30 - 10:40	Registration of participants
10:40 - 10:50	Introductory remarks by Miroslav Beblavý , Senior Research Fellow at Centre for European Policy Studies in Brussels
10:50 - 11:30	Panel Discussion Miroslav Beblavý , Senior Research Fellow at Centre for European Policy Studies in Brussels Emilia Beblava , Director of Faculty of Social and Economic Science at Comenius University in Bratislava Volodymyr Tarnay , Head of open budgets department at Center for political studies and analytics, Expert of the Reanimation Package of Reforms Representative of the Ministry of Finance of Ukraine - TBC Discussion moderated by - TBC
11:30 – 12:00	Q&A Session